Annotation: In this article we can see that the main focus now is on the study and teaching of foreign languages, as well as its further development and comprehensive improvement. In addition, there are many decisions based on it in the study of foreign languages. At the same time, foreign languages are very important today.

Keywords: foreign languages, foreign language teaching, teaching improvement, basic decisions.

We all know that a number of steps have been taken over the past few years to improve the English language. The President also mentioned this in his selectors. In addition, certain laws have been signed to improve the system of teaching foreign languages. From time immemorial, our people have said, "He who knows the language knows."

Work carried out on the implementation of the Resolution of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated December 10, 2012 No PP-1875 "On measures to further improve the system of learning foreign languages" 1. March 26, 2013 from 12 to 30 In order to consistently implement the Resolution of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated December 10, 2012 No PP-1875 "On measures to further improve the system of learning foreign languages" in the conference hall of the Faculty of Foreign Languages of Tashkent State Pedagogical University named after Nizami A scientific-theoretical seminar on "New methods and innovations in teaching foreign languages" was held at the Faculty of Foreign Languages of the State Pedagogical University in order to improve the skills of teachers of English in professional colleges of the Republic. [1].

Following this workshop, the State Education Standards and Curricula in the field of (English) education were developed. This was followed by methodological recommendations and necessary materials for a short-term study of English. Not only that, but English online lessons, books, and various programs and internet programs have been developed through the internet portal. Not only have these major changes in education taken place in recent years, but they have opened the door to many opportunities for many programmers. For example, the newly developed BOOKNOMY, TEDBOOK, etc. for teaching English have been made available to the public as an important guide for young children and adults. In the coming months, the President will hold a video conference on the use and improvement of modern methods of teaching foreign languages. The decision then included the following;

- Starting from the new academic year, the number of admission quotas in foreign languages will be doubled, and the state grant will be tripled;
- The Ministry of Preschool Education, in cooperation with UNICEF, will develop a manual on teaching foreign languages to children under 7 years of age;
- 1 million soums will be allocated from the budget for each foreign language teacher to keep abreast of changes in the field, to purchase new literature and manuals;
- A Presidential Award will be established to determine the best foreign language schools;
- To improve the quality of foreign language teaching in schools, regional administrations will allocate 1 billion soums from the local budget to each district and city;
- Teachers who receive an initial or intermediate level of international certification will receive a 40 percent increase in their monthly salary, and those with high results will receive a 50 percent increase. [2]

These laws are slowly being formed and are being reflected. In addition, following these decisions, the Cabinet of Ministers signed the following resolutions in order to further develop knowledge of foreign languages. In particular, to ensure the quality of teaching foreign languages to the younger generation at all stages of the system of continuing education, to radically improve the system of training specialists fluent in foreign languages, to ensure the continuity and continuity of curricula in this area. In order to provide benefits and incentives to pupils, students and teachers who have a qualification certificate on the basis of the development of a national test system for assessing the level of knowledge of foreign languages, the Cabinet of Ministers decides:

1. To the State Testing Center under the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Ministry of Public Education, the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Special Education, the Center for Secondary Special and Vocational Education: from the 2017-2018 academic year continuously The level of foreign language acquisition at all stages of the education system is determined by the state educational standards "Listening", "Reading", "Writing", "Speaking". Develop and implement a mechanism for evaluation based on the principles

2. From October 1, 2017, the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Special Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan together with the ministries and departments with higher education institutions in the system: On the basis of foreign language departments of higher education institutions 'organization of extracurricular courses for teachers in foreign languages; Introduction of intensive language courses at the level of communication in higher education institutions for students wishing to learn the language, the creation of dictionaries of terms in specialties, various competitions in foreign languages to take measures to attract leading foreign specialists to the educational process, to organize lectures in foreign languages on special subjects;

The State Testing Center under the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan together with the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Special Education, the Ministry of Public Education from January 1, 2018 with the widespread use of the national test system for assessing foreign language proficiency Introduce the following procedure for granting the following benefits to applicants with a qualification certificate up to 2 years after receiving the certificate: To give the maximum score in a foreign language at the entrance to secondary special, vocational education institutions, where the foreign language (English, German, French) is included in the list of qualifying tests of secondary special, vocational education institutions exemption from language test [3].

All these decisions are recommended by the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan as a program and methodological guide for each higher education and public education.

In short, these decisions are not only the main task for the development of such foreign languages in Uzbekistan, but also in all areas. Not only English but many languages as well; Russian, Chinese, Korean, etc. From year to year now and the reason we say this is that we need to learn languages that are not limited to one language. Another example of this is that our great ancestor Alisher Navoi also created and called for bilingualism, and the number of people learning Chinese from English is growing. It should be noted that we also need to know more foreign languages.
